

Elisabeth Hamdouch, *Deputy Head of Unit,
Copernicus, DG GROW.I2*

Elisabeth Hamdouch has been the deputy Head of Unit of the Unit for Copernicus – earth observation satellites – at DG GROW since September 2018.

Originally from Germany, after finishing her undergraduate studies in Philosophy and Economics at the University of Bayreuth, Germany, Hamdouch earned a Master of Arts in European Economic Studies from the College of Europe in Bruges, Belgium,

Prior to her current role, she spent four years working as the Deputy Head of Unit, Clean Technologies & Products in DG GROW.C1, European Commission. Throughout her active career, Elisabeth Hamdouch has held several other positions in the fields of industrial policy and construction within the European Commission. She also spent several years in Singapore where she was working as an economist for the British Commonwealth and Foreign Office and later on as the Executive Director of the European Chamber of Commerce in Singapore.

hosted by organised by

