

Miguel Saiz, IT Strategy and Planning Manager,
EEAS - CPCC

Miguel Saiz started his career in 1996 at IT Private Sector, leading numerous projects related to IT strategy, consulting, and Systems Implementation, Head of committees for the New Technologies across different Spanish Administration bodies.

He joined the European External Action Service in 2013 as Chief of IT for the Civilian CSDP Missions in Africa and the Middle East, implementing his work in field of IT Systems, VSat and Secure Communications. In 2016 he joined CPCC HQ as IT Strategy and Planning Manager, responsible for the governance and standardization of IT systems and VSat communications across all the CSDP Civilian Missions.

Educated at Yago School, Oxford, UK, he obtained his Bachelor Degree in Information Systems Management, Master in Business Administration. Miguel is continuously expanding his knowledge on IT Systems Engineering.

hosted by organised by

