

Stefano Agnelli, Director of European Institutional Affairs, Eutelsat

Stefano Agnelli is Director of European Institutional Affairs at Eutelsat, one of the world's leading satellite operators, based in Paris. He advocates the role of satellite services to policymakers and other stakeholders within the ICT and Space arena. Previously he held various technical and commercial positions within the company.

Before joining Eutelsat, Stefano worked in Italy with Telettra (now Nokia), FIAR (now Leonardo) and CEFRIEL (Italian industrial academic research initiative).

Stefano holds a Master's Degree in Telecommunications from the Polytechnic of Milan and an Executive Masters from the IAE Paris-Sorbonne Graduate Business School; he has thirty-three years international experience in telecommunications.

hosted by organised by

