

RACAUD Thierry,
Chief Executive Officer, ESSP (European Satellite Services Provider)

Thierry RACAUD's career is all about aviation and space. He received his flying licence when he was 17, later started his career at Airbus Defence & Space (former Matra Marconi Space) where he worked on various civilian and military satellite and launcher programmes. He then joined Capgemini in 2000 to contribute to the development of the AeroSpace & Defence division as Vice President and Member of its Executive Committee. He has been acting as ESSP's Chief Executive Officer since 2014.

hosted by organised by

