

Tomasz Widomski, Member of Supervisory Board; ELPROMA

Tomasz Widomski holds a degree in Computer Science from Warsaw University of Technology and an Economics degree from Warsaw School of Economics. During 1992 – 2014 Widomski was the CEO of ELPROMA and currently he is holding a position of the Senior Member of ELPROMA's Supervisory Board.

Inventor, with over 30 years of experience in IT/IoT, Tomasz has supervised several R&D projects, including the Horizon 2020 DEMETRA Project, CERN White Rabbit and more.

Widomski is a member of Atomic Time Scale Laboratories in Poland. Moreover, he is also a cybersecurity expert for synchronization systems for financial market, telecom, power distribution, smart city etc. Since 2018 he has been active as a lecturer in quantum computing and quantum cryptography.

hosted by organised by

